INVOLVING THE EUROPEAN SOLIDARITY CORPS (EUROPEAN VOLUNTEERS) INTO THE (EXTRA-)CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES IN THE REPUBLIC OF SLOVENIA, EU

Benefits for the volunteers:

- developing skills (communication, empathy, organization, problem solving, research and information gathering, teamwork ...)
- developing competences (social, cultural, language, digital literacy, self-initiative ...)

Benefits for the public institution:

- meet foreigners,
- practice different languages,
- get familiar with basic cultural similarities and differences,
- formal & informal learning,
- real-life situations,
- life-long learning, ...

Extra lesson planning, additional cooperation with some other institutions, extra written reports, after-work consideration, no extra money, ....

BUT

The young are able to become peaceful, broadminded and tolerant inhabitants of the multilingual and multicultural world.
